AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

289. By alleging the Affirmative Defenses set forth below, Northwest Instrument intends no alteration of the burden of proof and/or burden of going forward with evidence which otherwise exists with respect to any particular issues at law or in equity. Furthermore, all such defenses are pleaded in the alternative, and do not constitute an admission of liability or that Plaintiffs are entitled to any relief whatsoever.

First Affirmative Defense

290. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part because the Second Amended Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Second Affirmative Defense

291. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statutes of limitations, laches, and the statute of repose.

Third Affirmative Defense

292. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrines of laches, waiver, consent, release, estoppel, unclean hands, and/or ratification.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

293. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part by the doctrine of equitable estoppel.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

294. Plaintiffs' claims are barred because Plaintiffs have failed to show that what they allege to be trade secrets are actually trade secrets under the law.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

295. Plaintiffs' claims are barred because, to the extent any form of trade secrets exists, Plaintiffs have not shown that Plaintiffs are the owners of the alleged trade secrets.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

296. Plaintiffs' claims are barred because Plaintiffs have failed to identify the specific trade secrets allegedly misappropriated and used by Defendants.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

297. Plaintiffs' claims are barred because the alleged trade secrets are either generally known or readily ascertainable by proper means, were not valuable business information, or were not the subject of efforts that were reasonable under the circumstances to maintain their secrecy.

Ninth Affirmative Defense

298. Plaintiffs' claims are barred because Plaintiffs failed to take reasonable steps to maintain and safeguard the secrecy of any information claimed in this action to be a trade secret.

Tenth Affirmative Defense

299. Plaintiffs' claims are barred because they have not suffered any losses or damages proximately caused by the conduct of Defendants alleged in the Second Amended Complaint.

Eleventh Affirmative Defense

300. Plaintiffs' trade secret misappropriation claims fail, in whole or in part, because Plaintiffs' alleged trade secrets have been disclosed publicly or were generally known.

Twelfth Affirmative Defense

301. Plaintiffs' trade secret misappropriation claims fail, in whole or in part, because the technology and processes used to make the accused products were independently developed.

Thirteenth Affirmative Defense

302. Plaintiffs' trade secret misappropriation claims fail, in whole or in part, because, to the extent Rosenberger acquired any alleged trade secret, it did so in a lawful manner.

Fourteenth Affirmative Defense

303. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part because Plaintiffs have failed to mitigate any damages they may have suffered.

Fifteenth Affirmative Defense

304. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part because it cannot demonstrate that Defendants acted with the requisite intent.

Sixteenth Affirmative Defense

305. Plaintiffs' claims for misappropriation of trade secrets fail, in whole or in part, on the grounds that the alleged trade secrets or other confidential and proprietary information for which Plaintiffs claim they are entitled to the relief sought are not trade secrets because Plaintiffs cannot meet their burden to show that the information derives independent economic value, actual or potential, from not being generally known to, and not being readily ascertainable through proper means by, another person who can obtain economic value from the disclosure or use of the information.

Seventeenth Affirmative Defense

306. Plaintiffs' claims are barred in whole or in part by the applicable statute of limitations.

Eighteenth Affirmative Defense

307. Plaintiffs are not entitled to injunctive relief because any injury to them is not immediate or irreparable, Plaintiffs would have an adequate remedy at law, the balance of hardships weighs against an injunction, and the public interest is best served by not issuing an injunction.

Nineteenth Affirmative Defense

308. Plaintiffs have not suffered and will not suffer harm as a result of Rosenberger's alleged misconduct.

Twentieth Affirmative Defense

309. Plaintiffs' claims under United States or state law have no extraterritorial effect. Plaintiffs are barred from asserting such claims concerning conduct outside the United States.

Twenty-First Affirmative Defense

310. Any decision by a court outside the United States, or agreement entered into by the parties outside the United States, should be given deference as a matter of comity.

Twenty-Second Affirmative Defense

311. Northwest Instrument hereby adopts by reference any additional applicable defense pleaded by any other defendant and not otherwise pleaded herein, as well as any defense available under the statutes relied upon by Plaintiffs. Northwest Instrument intends to rely upon any additional defense that is now or may become available or appears during or as a result of the discovery proceedings in this action, and expressly reserves its right to amend its answer to assert any such defense.

WHEREFORE, Northwest Instrument demands judgment in its favor and against the Plaintiffs, as follows:

- (a) For Northwest Instrument and against Plaintiffs on each and every claim set forth in the Second Amended Complaint;
- (b) Awarding Northwest Instrument reasonable attorneys' fees and costs as well as such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
